

Lynne Haultain – brief professional biography

Lynne Haultain is a highly accomplished senior executive. Commencing her career as an ABC Broadcaster, Lynne has gone on to a highly successful Executive career in the Public sector.

She is Chair of the Board of Management at the Victorian Foundation for the Survivors of Torture, and a former commissioner with the Victorian Law Reform Commission. Lynne also headed up a Premier's advisory panel on children's services.

Executive roles have included inaugural General Manager, Strategic Communications with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC); City of Melbourne and Director Communications & Culture, The Victorian Ombudsman.

With more than a decade's experience working inside all three levels of government, Lynne's counsel has also been sought as a high-level communications strategist.

Lynne's earlier career included 15 years with the ABC as a Broadcast Journalist. Moving from Perth Melbourne in 1992 to present the national overnight program Beyond Midnight, later Lynne took a role as senior reporter and presenter for ABC Rural on Countrywide for Radio National. In 1997, she presented the Law Report on Radio National. Lynne moved to local radio presenting the regional drive program for Victoria before moving to 774 ABC Melbourne. She hosted the breakfast program for more than 4 years. Lynne then presented the afternoon program for two years before leaving 774 ABC Melbourne in 2004.

Lynne graduated in Law and English at the University of Western Australia, has participated in the Cranlana Colloquium in 2014, and has a Diploma of Business (Governance).